Hymn of Fellowship: "Let there be peace on earth"

Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me
 Let there be peace on earth
 The peace that was meant to be
 With God our Creator
 Children all are we
 Let us walk with each other
 In perfect harmony

Let peace begin with me
 Let this be the moment now
 With every step I take
 Let this be my solemn vow
 To take each moment,
 And live each moment
 In peace and eternally

Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me.

THE LAST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

FIRST READING: 2 KINGS 2:1-12

Comment: "Elijah taken up to heaven"

From the Hebrew Bible, we hear the story of the taking up of the prophet Elijah into the heaven and the passing on of his power to Elisha. The narrative illustrates the great favour Elijah found in the eyes of the Lord as he is carried away in a chariot of fire. Elisha is first in despair and rends his clothing in mourning, yet realizes he himself has been chosen to offer continued prophetic vision to the people.

Psalm 50:1-6

The psalm tells of the majestic and righteous God, who requires true sacrifice and thanksgiving of the people.

SECOND READING: (The Epistle) 2 Corinthians 4:3-6

Comment: "God's light seen in Christ"

In this lesson, Paul proclaims that Christ is the very image of God, though not all can perceive this truth. This proclamation focuses on Jesus Christ as Lord, and Paul is captive to this message. As light shone forth from darkness in creation, so God has shone forth in the hearts of those to whom the light of the knowledge of God in Christ has been given.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark9:2-9

Comment: "Christ revealed as God's beloved Son"

Our gospel is the story of Jesus' transfiguration. The narrative draws upon themes and symbols from Israel's past and its hopes for the future. Moses and Elijah represent the law and the prophets, whose promises Jesus fulfils. The chosen disciples see divine glory reflected in Jesus' human person. A voice from the cloud declares that he is God's beloved Son.
