A Novena for the Election of the 14th Bishop of Barbados

Day Seven

Readers: 7:00 A.M. – Representative of the Guild of St. Raphael

9:00 A.M. – Representative of the Guild of St. Raphael

A bishop in God’s holy Church is called to share with fellow bishops in the leadership of the Church throughout the world.

Hymn: 200 ~ “Come, Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire”

Reading: 2 Corinthians 10:12-16

We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another, and compare themselves with one another, they do not show good sense. We, however, will not boast beyond limits, but will keep within the field that God has assigned to us, to reach out even as far as you. For we were not overstepping our limits when we reached you; we were the first to come all the way to you with the good news of Christ. We do not boast beyond limits, that is, in the labors of others; but our hope is that, as your faith increases, our sphere of action among you may be greatly enlarged, so that we may proclaim the good news in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in someone else’s sphere of action.

The Prayers

Officiants: 7:00 A.M. ~ Mr. George Small

9:00 A.M. ~ Representative of the Church Army

The prayers are led by an Officiant, and the people respond.

Lord Jesus Christ, whose choice of twelve apostles gave us the pattern of the house of bishops in your Holy Church, hear our prayers for the next bishop of the Diocese of Barbados.

Our bishop will need wisdom and grace among his fellow-bishops to be at the same time a gracious friend and a bold, prophetic voice. Give him your Spirit for these tasks, and companions along his way who will uphold him in prayer and fellowship, leading him always further toward you.

Lord, hear our prayer.

When conflicts arise in your body the Church, grant him wisdom and grace to know not only the right thing to do, but also the loving manner in which he must do it for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Fill him with the gift of your Spirit for leadership in your Holy Church throughout the world, that all those who love you in every place may find their faith in Christ's resurrection confirmed, may renew their hope in your almighty deliverance, and may be strengthened to walk courageously the way of the cross.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Officiant: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Officiant: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, who art in heaven; Hallowed be thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, And forgive us our trespasses As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory For ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all evermore. Amen

The Greeting of Peace “A”	Page 124
Hymn of Fellowship:
“Let there be peace on earth”

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

Let there be peace on earth	Let peace begin with me
And let it begin with me	Let this be the moment now
Let there be peace on earth	With every step I take
The peace that was meant to be	Let this be my solemn vow
With God our Creator	To take each moment,
Children all are we	And live each moment
Let us walk with each other	In peace and eternally
In perfect harmony

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 4:5-12

Comment: “Salvation in the name of Jesus”

In this story from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter and John, having cured a crippled man, are called to account before the high Jewish council. Peter testifies that the source of their healing power is the same Jesus whom the leaders rejected. Referring to scripture, Peter speaks of the stone rejected by the builders, which is nevertheless meant to be the cornerstone of the new faith. Evidently there were a number of encounters like this in the life of the early church, but the disciples continued to heal and to preach in Jesus' name.

Psalm 23

The Lord is shepherd and guide, God is present in the time of danger and is generous and merciful.

Second Lesson (The Epistle): 1 John 3:16-24

Comment: “Love in truth and action”

In our epistle lesson we learn that, the followers of Jesus are to emulate his love by laying down their lives for one another. Such love is demanding and practical, requiring believers to share what they have with those who lack. By acting in ways consistent with the kindness of God, disciples will know that they do indeed believe in Jesus the Son of God. They will know that he abides within them and they in him, and that the Spirit has been given them.

THE HOLY GOSPEL John 10:11-18

Comment: “Christ is the shepherd”

In our gospel reading, we are taught that Jesus is the good shepherd who is willing to die for his sheep. He is not like one who has been hired to tend the sheep, and who runs away in time of danger. Rather, he knows the sheep with the same intimacy that he has with the Father. Jesus has shared fully in their circumstances. Together with those who are yet to be called, there will be one flock under the one true shepherd.
