THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

FIRST READING: 2 Samuel 5: 1-5, 9-10

Comment: "The reign of David"

In our first lesson, we hear the culmination of the narrative charting the rise of David. David has already been anointed king of the southern tribes, but these actions in Judah carry no weight among the northern tribes of Israel. Now the tribes of Israel come to David at Hebron to form an alliance, entering into a covenant and anointing David their "Shepherd-King." David will go on to capture Jerusalem and will rule the united kingdom of Judah and Israel from that city, now called the city of David. God's providential care for Israel is manifested through David, God's chosen instrument

Psalm: 48

A celebration of God's providential care and defense on Mount Zion and the holy temple.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 2 Corinthians 12:2-10

Comment: "God's power made perfect in weakness"

In this Epistle lesson, Paul tells of both exaltation and infirmity, and the discovery of a strength that comes through weakness. The Corinthians wanted to boast of their revelations and visions. Well, Paul knows a man (he means himself) who once had an ecstatic experience. God has, however, revealed something still more important to him: that the divine power comes to its full strength when acting through human frailty.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 6:1-13

Comment: "The twelve sent to preach and healed"

In our Gospel story, Jesus returns to his hometown and finds suspicion and lack of faith. He can do no mighty works in such a climate. The passage reminds us that God's action is often clothed in the commonplace. Though rejected, Jesus perseveres and expands his ministry, commissioning his disciples two by two and sending them out to the surrounding villages to preach and to heal. They are to travel in radical dependence upon God, making little provision for their own maintenance or well-being.

CATHEDRAL NEWS

1. Registration: Further to the appeal for a registration of all members of the Cathedral, please note that, so far, only 235 have been received out of over a 1000 forms distributed. The cooperation of everyone is required; please be reminded that the information is for Cathedral use only, and will be held in confidence.

3. Fire Wardens: Some measures have been taken to enhance the Safety and Security of the premises: the installation of Electronic Surveillance Cameras, Smoke Detectors, and Fire Extinguishers. The next phase is Emergency Management. Towards that end, the Church is seeking two more persons to serve as Fire Wardens in the event of an emergency. Interested persons may contact the Administrative Assistant's office.

4. The Daily Offices: Members are encouraged to pray the Daily Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer as part of their growth in righteousness, and of having a right relationship with God and their neighbours. The Book of Common Prayer is a symbol of unity in the Church in the Province of the West Indies and we stand in solidarity with other believers from across the Anglican Communion. The Cycle of Readings for the Daily Office affords persons the opportunity to read significant portions of Scripture throughout the year. Please see Proper! Please see Proper 9, Year 2, page 763; for example, tomorrow, Monday, the readings for Morning Prayer are: Psalm 1, 2, 3, Numbers 32:1-6, 16-27 and Matthew 23:1-12; at Evening Prayer, Psalm 4, 7, 1 Samuel 15:1-3, 7-23, and Romans 8:26-30. For further details "Concerning the Daily Office Lectionary", please see page 734, BCP. Pray for grace at this time!

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the final Refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove, stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness, and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
