THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 8: 22-30, 41-43

Comment: "Solomon's prayer at the temple dedication"

In our Hebrew scripture lesson, Solomon offers praise to the Lord and prays that the newly built temple may be a house for the Lord's gracious presence. King Solomon and the elders have just given the Ark of the Covenant a home, placing it in the temple they are now dedicating. Solomon recognises that God transcends all human buildings, but asks the Lord to be present to those who call upon God in this temple—not only the people of Israel, but also foreigners who come to worship in Jerusalem.

Psalm 84

A song of the pilgrims' happiness as they come to worship in the temple of the Lord.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Ephesians 6:10-20

Comment: "Put on the Armour of God"

In this New Testament lesson, Christians are instructed to put on the whole armour of God in order to defend themselves from the powers of evil, which are beyond any human control. The passage recognises that it is God who will take the active role against these superhuman forces. In this battle it is the Christian's primary task to stand and resist. The language and imagery may once have been used in an address to newly baptised disciples. Finally, they are urged to be constant in prayer, remembering Paul who is now in prison.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 6:56-69

Comment: "The bread of eternal life"

In the Gospel, we hear of different responses to Jesus' claim that he is the heavenly bread that gives the life of the eternal age to those who eat it. His are words of spirit and life, but many can understand them only in a materialistic sense and are like the Israelites who did not trust God in the wilderness. Yet, if this saying is hard for them to believe, more difficult still will be Jesus' ascent into heaven as the Son of Man. As Jesus knew would happen, many disciples now turn away, but Peter confesses him to be God's holy one, who has the words of eternal life.

DIOCESAN NEWS

Barbados Diocesan Synod: The Electoral Assembly reconvened on Monday, July 30, 2018 failed to elect a Bishop. A resolution was subsequently moved and passed to delegate the selection of the 14th Bishop of the Diocese of Barbados to the House of Bishops. Another option, delegation to a Selection Committee comprising persons within the Diocese or some of whom or all of whom are outside the Diocese, was rejected, due to the fact that the Regulations were considered too ambiguous to inspire confidence in the process. In the meantime, members are asked to pray for the Bishops in their discernment.

Congratulations to all those persons celebrating Birthdays this week August 26th – 31st, 2018

May God bless and strengthen you.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the final Refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove, stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness, and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'

THEME FOR THE WEEK

is a reflection
