THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

FIRST READING: Proverbs 1:20-33

Comment: "Wisdom's rebuke to the foolish"

Our opening lesson is an instructional poem in which Wisdom is personified as an attribute of God's character and a virtue to be sought and possessed. Lady Wisdom actively seeks out those as yet unformed in character and strives to gain their attention, for she offers to lead them into the way of life and goodness. Those who scoff or refuse her instruction court calamity, but those who listen will dwell secure.

PSALM 19

A hymn which glorifies the Creator God, with special praise for God's law, and a prayer for avoidance of sin.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): James 3: 1-12

Comment: "Dangers of the unbridled tongue"

In this New Testament lesson the community is reminded that one who instructs others will be held to a high standard, and such a position should only be aspired to by those well-formed in faith. Of particular concern are habits of speech. The tongue is compared to a small rudder able to control a large ship at sea. There is great danger in an uncontrolled tongue, and many forms of careless speech are enumerated. The Christian must learn self-discipline in order that God may be glorified.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 8:27-38

Comment: "Peter's confession of faith"

In our Gospel Peter recognises that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus then describes the true nature of the ministry of the Son of Man and what it means to follow in his way. The passage reminds us that during Jesus' lifetime and afterward, there was speculation about his role. Some saw him as a kind of re-embodiment of John the Baptist or another prophet. Peter is called "Satan" because his words are a temptation to turn away from the suffering and death which come before resurrection. Disciples must also learn that the true self and true life are found by those who will let themselves be lost for the sake of Jesus and the Gospel.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the final refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness, and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'

Theme For The Week
