WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

FIRST READING: Proverbs 31:10-31

Comment: "The capable wife"

In this lesson from the Book of Proverbs, we find a poem to a woman of worth who embodies attributes beyond charm and beauty, all of which have their source in her allegiance to God. In an agrarian culture where the economic and social well-being of the household was primary, the industry and ability of ranking women were essential to the success of the extended family and its dependents. The virtues of the ideal woman described in this acrostic poem are substantially economic; she is an astute businesswoman, managing with excellence all that is in her charge. She is charitable to the poor and extends herself for the needy, displays wisdom, and teaches kindness.

PSALM 1

The Lord makes fruitful those who choose the way of righteousness.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): James 3: 13-4:3,7-8a

Comment: "The wisdom from above"

In this New Testament epistle, believers are to cleave to wisdom that is pure, peaceable, gentle, and full of mercy and good fruits. The Christian community must recognise the results of worldly attitudes and desires: jealousy, disorder, quarrels, even murder. Prayers are too often offered for the wrong motives, but a harvest of righteousness is sown for those who sow in peace. The wise will refuse evil and draw near to God, and in doing so, they will find that God has also drawn near to them.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 9:30-37

Comment: "Prediction of the Passion"

In the Gospel Jesus foretells his death and resurrection as the Son of Man, bidding his disciples to have a servant ministry and to learn to welcome him and God in a child. The several sayings are linked together by the theme of Jesus' lowliness and readiness to suffer for others. His followers' difficulty in understanding him and their discussion concerning which of them is greatest stand in sharp contrast to their Lord's teachings. Jesus' actions and words with regard to the child remind us of another saying: whatever is done to the least member of the community is done to him.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the final refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness, and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
