From The Dean's Pen

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

In some sections of the Church, November is observed as Stewardship renewal month; a time to consider the many ways in which God has endowed us and how we could respond to God's generosity. When we recognize that one hundred percent (100%) of what we have in Talent, Time and Treasure – are God-given, it is quite natural to ask, 'how can we repay'?

Some consider the Biblical tithe - ten percent (10%), as a guide. However, this principle must be animated by the Spirit of the Law rather than being dictated by its letter. In fact, Jesus argued that point in one of his many encounters with the Scribes and Pharisees. He stated, “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint, dill, and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. It is these you ought to have practised without neglecting the others.” (Matthew 23:23)

In other words, to be guided by the tithe is okay; however, in the walk with God and neighbour, one should not neglect justice, mercy and love which have no limits. The Christian Church has identified seven Spiritual Acts of Mercy by which individuals and congregations could live out their personal ministry and concern for each other. These are to:

- i. Feed the Hungry
- ii. Give Drink to the Thirsty
- iii. Clothe the Naked
- iv. Harbour the Stranger
- v. Visit the Sick;
- vi. Minister to the Prisoners; and

vii. Bury the Dead.

Regrettably, the Church seldom has the financial capacity to minister in such broad terms. November is a good time to look back at one's financial contribution during the year, and in light of the current economic challenges of the Nation, to commit to the bold initiative of 'Stewardship as a way of life'. By the grace of God, it can be done!

Yours sincerely,
Dean Jeffrey

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the final Refrain)

There’s a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it’s the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we’ll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.

You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'

THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST YEAR B

First Lesson: Ruth 1:1-18

Comments: "Ruth remains with Naomi"

Our opening lesson tells of Ruth's decision to leave her own country and return with her mother-in-law Naomi to Israel. Naomi's husband and two sons die while living in Moab. Ruth persists in her desire to go back to Bethlehem with Naomi and to accept Israel's God as her own. Later she will marry a relative of her father-in-law and, though a foreign woman, become the grandmother of King David. The narrative is both a touching lesson of loyalty and devotion and an illustration that God's ways of bringing about divine purposes often differ from human expectations.

Psalm

A hymn to the Lord, who forms the world and rules in justice, who heals and cares for the orphan and widow.

Second Lesson: The Epistle) Hebrew 9:11-14

Comments: "Redeemed through Christ's blood"

In this New Testament lesson, we are taught that Christ, our high priest, has fulfilled and surpassed the purposes of the earthly temple that served as an archetype of the heavenly reality. Through his faithful sacrifice, Jesus has entered the eternal holy of holies and obtained the everlasting redemption prefigured by the old rites of animal sacrifice. Believers may now worship the living God with a purified conscience, knowing themselves to be sanctified through Christ.

The Gospel: Mark 12:28-34

Comments: "Two commandments: love God and neighbour"

In the Gospel, Jesus answers a question concerning the chief command of the law by reciting the double commandment to love God and one's neighbours. Jesus was not unique in bringing together these two great teachings from Israel's heritage, but the New Testament gives them special emphasis. They are closely linked, for in responding to God's love, we learn that we are lovable, and so begin to be able to love others as ourselves. In loving our neighbours we discover the mystery that we are also loving in them their Creator. The man who asked Jesus the question repeats the commandments to his own words. He is not far from the kingdom.
