The Feast of the Epiphany
January 6, 2019
Service: 7:00 A.M & 9:00 A.M.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

On this first Sunday in the New Year, the feast of the Epiphany, the idea of life as a journey comes to mind. Like the Wise men who embarked on a journey in search of the Christ-child, the people of faith stride year by year with confidence that God will indeed disclose the divine plan to us.

The sounds of the Christmas carols may still be ringing in our ears as the realities of life return, bringing their uncertainty and anxiety. The affairs of the society, nation and the world; the personal situations which confront the individual; and the situations in our churches all combine at times, to make the journey rather rough. Nevertheless, it is important to continue in that search for meaning in each activity and encounter.

It is worthy to note that the Christian Epiphany, the acceptance of Jesus by the entire world, took place not as an act of divine self-satisfaction, but for us. As people journey, it is hoped that they would experience the presence of God dispelling the darkness of the world; offering peace in the midst of conflict; and sifting truth out of falsehood.

When such encounters take place, the response could be modelled after that of the magi. There is offering of self in an authentic manner and the presentation of the most valuable gifts which are available. God's supreme act of love does not depart from us even in the midst of the greatest of threats to our existence. Because of that we can continue striding.

May we therefore journey in Hope, Faith and Love throughout 2019.

Yours sincerely

Dean Jeffrey

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

Let there be peace on earth
And Let it begin with me
Let there be peace on earth
The peace that was meant to be
With God our Creator
Children all are we
Let us walk with each other
In perfect harmony

Let peace begin with me
Let this be the moment now
With every step I take
Let this be my solemn vow
To take each moment
And live each moment
In peace eternally

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me.

The Feast of the Epiphany

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Comment: “Nations come to the light”

In our Hebrew scripture lesson, the prophet envisions the end of exile and the glorious restoration of Jerusalem.

Although darkness covers the earth, the Lord will be a light making God’s people shine. To this radiance shall come the nations. Rich treasures will be brought from afar to honour God.

Psalm 72:1-7, 10-14

This psalm asks that God endow the king with compassionate justice and righteousness, and that His reign may extend over all nations and throughout all generations.

Second Lesson: (The Epistle) Ephesians 3:1-12

Comment: “The gospel’s promise for all”

Here is set forth the great theme of Paul’s apostolic commission: the revealed mystery that Christ’s salvation extends beyond Judaism to include all peoples. The apostle is near the end of his ministry and in prison at the time of the writing of this letter. Now it is recognised as God’s eternal purpose that the Gentiles are to be members of the same body. The wisdom of God is made known through the church even in transcendental realms.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Comment: “Christ revealed to the nations”

Our Gospel is the story of the wise men from the east, who, guided by a star, come to worship the child born to be king. Despite the wicked plotting of Herod, the Magi are able to bring their gifts to Jesus without betraying his exact location. Early Christians found in the rich symbolism and motifs of the story the fulfilment of both Hebrew scripture prophecy and the dreams of many peoples. The meaning of his birth, amid terrifyingly human circumstances, enlightens and transcends human history.
