The Second Sunday of Easter

FIRST READING: Acts 5:27-32

Comment: "The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus."

In our lesson from the Book of Acts the apostles are brought before the council of religious authorities in Jerusalem and again commanded to cease teaching in the name of Jesus. Peter and the apostles claim a higher authority and proclaim that the executed Jesus is their exalted Leader and Saviour, offering forgiveness to Israel. The apostles and the Holy Spirit must bear witness to Jesus.

Psalm 118: 14--29

A festival hymn sung in procession in praise of the Lord's salvation and deliverance from death.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Revelation 1:4-8

Comment: "Jesus Christ, firstborn of the dead."

In this lesson John the Seer addresses seven representative churches in Asia Minor with a hymn of praise to Christ, the firstborn from the dead and now ruler of all. The resurrected Jesus frees disciples from their sins and makes them a kingdom of priests serving his God and Father, the One who is and was and is to come.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 20:19-31

Comment: "Beholding the wounds of the risen Christ."

Our gospel presents two appearances of the risen Lord to his disciples. The first takes place on the very evening of the day of the resurrection. The disciples are gathered in fear, but Jesus brings them peace, gives them their mission, and bestows on them the Holy Spirit. A week later, Thomas, who had been absent when Jesus first appeared and who doubted his resurrection, now knows Jesus by his wounds and worships him as his Lord and God. Future disciples will not have Jesus' physical presence, but they will be blessed in their belief.
