My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Greetings to you in the name of Jesus who shared our humanity!

The season of Lent is progressing to its climax and the Call To Newal has been observed in the liturgy, week by week. We have affirmed that God, who created humanity in the Divine image, loves us with an inexhaustible and unmerited love and sent Jesus to share our humanity. That remains the basis of any renewal of faith, both for the individual as well as the faith community.

As we anticipate Holy Week, let us reflect upon how Jesus endured the embarrassment of ridicule, the pain of rejection, the humiliation of betrayal and eventually the tragedy of a violent death. Because of this, he is able to identify with our experiences and be at one with the suffering of the world.

Such suffering that is borne as an expression of obedient love expects a response. God certainly expects a response from us. It is by the surrender of self that the individual might be filled with God's love. It is only in the context of love that we can make sense of the suffering of Jesus. When that love is realised it brims over and touches the lives of others. It is then that one is truly liberated and set free from the bondage of sin. It is from that experience that the believers are able to influence the world and to renew the relationships.

Let me take this opportunity to encourage you to invite someone to join the worship of Church, during Holy Week and Easter.

It could be a life-changing moment, for all.

*Yours sincerely,
Dean Jeffrey*

Let there be love.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT YEAR C

First Lesson: Isaiah 43:16-21

Comments: “The Lord gives water in the wilderness”

Our Hebrew scripture lection tells how the same Lord who brought the people through the Red Sea waters and crushed the army of the Egyptians will do a new thing in this day when God will bring the people home through the wilderness. No longer need the Israelites only remember the things the Lord did for them in the past. It is the end of the exile: again, God forms the chosen people. A safe way will be made in the wilderness, and rivers will flow in the barren desert.

Psalm 126

A song of hope and joy sung to the Lord, who restores the fortunes of God’s people.

Second Lesson: (The Epistle) Philippians 3:4B-14

Comments: “To know Christ and his resurrection”

In our epistle, the apostle Paul can boast of his religious background, yet nothing matters in comparison with knowing Christ as his Lord. If righteousness were to be based on a legalistic understanding of religion, Paul had any number of points in his favour. But all such privilege he now counts as garbage so that he may belong to Christ through faith and share in his sufferings. Forgetting what lies behind, he presses on toward the call ahead.

The Gospel: John 12:1-8

Comments: “Mary anoints Jesus for his burial”

In our Gospel story Jesus, but a few days before his passion, is at supper with Lazarus, Martha, and Mary when Mary anoints his feet with costly ointment. She then wipes his feet with her hair. Jesus links her action to his final anointing at burial, but Judas, seeking personal gain, chastises them over the cost of the perfume and invokes the needs of the poor. This action fits the extreme nature of the moment, Jesus counsels. Love like Mary’s will not overlook the poor.
