THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 11:1-18

Comment: "God saves the Gentiles"

In this reading from the story of the early church, followers of Jesus living in Judea and Jerusalem are astonished to learn of the conversion of Gentiles as Peter tells them of his heavenly vision and how the Holy Spirit fell upon the new believers. The vision helped Peter understand that the observance of food laws and the like was not essential for discipleship.

Psalm 148

The whole of creation and all peoples join together in praise of the Lord.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Revelation 21:1-6

Comment: "New heaven, new earth."

In this lesson John the Seer has a vision of the renewal of all creation and of the new Jerusalem as the city in which God will abide with redeemed humanity. The old order has passed away and death is no more, neither pain nor the causes of distress and sadness. Christ in victory, the Alpha and Omega, promises living water to any who thirst.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 13:31-35

Comment: "Love one another."

In our Gospel lesson, Jesus speaks to his disciples on the night that he is to be betrayed and handed over to death. Yet, his dying as the Son of Man will also be the way that God is glorified—both because of Jesus' sacrifice on behalf of others and because of his resurrection and victory over the power of death. Jesus' disciples will now be known by their following of his new commandment—that they love one another with the same sacrificial love he has shown them.
