

HE WALKED THE EARTH TO KNOW
what it's like to be human.

HE SUFFERED THE PAIN OF DEATH
on a cross to set us free.

HE ROSE FROM DEATH
to bring us everlasting life.

HE GAVE US THE HOLY SPIRIT
so we would never walk alone.

HE IS JESUS,
our Savior and King!

THE LORD
IS RISEN INDEED.

The Third Sunday of Easter

May 5, 2019

Services: 7:00 A.M. & 9:00 A.M.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!
Grace and peace to you in the name of our Risen Saviour.

Easter tide is always a glorious time and it often brings renewed vigor to individuals and the Christian community. It is a period when we give due recognition to the fact that all life comes from God and really belongs to God, who longs for deeper relationships.

Jesus by his work and willing obedience to doing the Father's will, provided the means whereby humanity was restored into union with God. When it is recognized that we have been bought with a price - nothing less than the body and blood of Christ, we too are challenged to respond in obedience. In particular, we are to live as God has created us anew in the Son. The Apostle Paul puts it rather succinctly when he said,

“Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.” (Colossians 3:2-3)

As a consequence of the new life found in Christ by the Christian through baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus, believers are to leave behind concerns for worldly things and to seek the things that are above. It is a lifelong quest which is inspired and sustained by an active relationship with Christ. The individual or Christian community is never alone; but is supported by the power and presence of the Risen Christ, who accompanies everyone along life's journey.

This Eastertide, let us celebrate that presence and demonstrate it by the manner in which we relate to each other, in church and society.

Yours sincerely
Dean Jeffrey

The Third Sunday of Easter Year C

First Reading: Acts 9:1-6

Comment: “Paul’s conversion, baptism, and preaching.”

In this reading from the story of the early church we hear how Paul is converted from being an enemy of the Christian way in order to become the great apostle to the non-Jewish peoples. While he is headed toward Damascus to persecute Christians, Paul is encountered by the risen Jesus. Jesus calls him by his Jewish name, Saul, and asks why he is persecuting him by persecuting his followers. Paul is blinded by the experience, and is instructed to proceed to Damascus, where God will offer further guidance

Psalm 30

A hymn of praise and thanksgiving by one who the Lord has saved from death.

Second Lesson: (The Epistle) Revelations 5:11-14

Comment: “The song of the living creatures to the Lamb.”

This lesson presents a heavenly vision of the Lamb that was slain—a figure of Jesus. Myriads of angels surrounded the elders and living creatures as they sing praises to the Lamb, joined by every creature in heaven, on earth, and under the earth. He who through his blood has offered ransom for his people, now lives and is worthy of all honour and glory.

The Holy Gospel: John 21:1-19

Comment: “Jesus appears to the disciples.”

Our Gospel tells of another appearance by Jesus to his disciples—this time after their return to the Sea of Tiberias or Galilee. Several of the disciples go fishing and do not immediately recognise Jesus standing on the shore and telling them where fish may be caught. Then the disciple whom Jesus loved (perhaps intended as a model for all disciples) perceives it is the Lord. Led by the impulsive Peter they all join Jesus, bringing with them their net full with a hundred fifty-three large fish. (The significance of this number remains unknown to us.) As often in these stories, they share a meal with their risen Lord. Jesus asks Simon Peter three times if he loves him, and three times instructs Peter to tend and feed his sheep as an expression of that love. Peter will glorify God Even in his death.
