The Third Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: 2 Kings 2:1-2, 6-14

Comment: "Elijah ascends into heaven"
From the Hebrew Bible we hear the story of the taking up of the prophet Elijah into heaven and the passing on of his power to Elisha. The narrative illustrates the great favour Elijah found in the eyes of the Lord as he is carried away in a chariot of fire. Elisha is in despair, but God does not leave the people without prophetic vision. As Elijah had done before him, and like a new Joshua, Elisha proves that God is with him by causing the Jordan River to part.

Psalm 77:1-2, 11-20
The psalm asks that God endow the king with compassionate justice and righteousness and that his reign may extend over all nations and throughout all generations. To him shall kings from distant lands bring gifts.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Galatians 5:1, 13-25

Comment: "Love is the whole of the law"
In this lesson, Paul describes the character of Christian Freedom. It enables one to fulfil the spirit of the entire law by loving one's neighbour as oneself. But always there is the danger of lapsing back into the old ways, described here as the ways of the flesh. This means enslavement to physical and spiritual sins which result from an unwillingness to be servants to one another in love. Those who belong to Christ live by the Spirit of love, joy, and self-control.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 9: 51-62

Comment: "Jesus says, Follow me"
In our Gospel, we hear how Jesus on his way to Jerusalem encounters opposition and misunderstanding, and then speaks with several would-be disciples. The Samaritans reject Jesus because they were opposed to worship in Jerusalem. James and John wish to punish them, but this is not Jesus' way. Potential followers are bid to count the cost, and Jesus points out that true discipleship means leaving other things behind. This can cause the painful rupture of past ties and relationships.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP
(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
