

The Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Amos 7:7-17

Comment: “A plumb line judging the people”

In this first lesson, Amos is given a vision of a plumb line, and he prophesies God’s judgement regardless of the personal consequences. A plumb line hangs down and shows whether a wall is vertical. Israel’s heart is out of line, and God is out of patience. The priest of the royal shrine at Bethel reports Amos’ words to the king and tells him to prophesy elsewhere. Amos replies that he is not one of the official, professional prophets that do others’ bidding. God has called him.

Psalm 82

God pronounces judgement on the heavenly beings who have failed to defend the weak and the poor. The people call on the one true God to judge and rule the earth.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Colossians 1:1-14

Comment: “The Gospel is bearing fruit”

In this lesson Paul greets the Christians at Colossae, offers thanks for their faith, and prays for their further strengthening. Paul had apparently not visited this city in the country today known as Turkey, but he praises his fellow servant Epaphras, who brought the gospel to the new converts. The apostle asks that they may be filled with spiritual understanding and be fruitful in good works. So, will they give thanks to the God who has rescued them from the power of darkness and evil and brought them into the kingdom of the Son of God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 10:25-37

Comment: “The parable of the merciful Samaritan”

The Gospel is the lawyer’s question and the parable of the Good Samaritan. While testing Jesus, this expert in the law asks a question at the heart of human longing: how can life’s true meaning and purpose be realised? Jesus causes him to answer for himself with the summary of the law. Recognizing how hard it is to put such lofty commandments into practice, the lawyer next asks, who is the neighbour that I am to love? Jesus hears his real question (who is not my neighbour?) and tells him the story of a man who could help another without requiring the law’s definition.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There’s a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it’s the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we’ll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
You’re the one to profit when you say,
‘I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.’
