The Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Amos 8:1-12

Comment: "A famine of hearing God's words"

The first lesson is a judgement on social injustice and religious hypocrisy. On celebrations like the New Moon and sabbaths, no work was allowed. Yet traders were so full of greed that they only mechanically observed the festivals and could not wait for them to be over so that they might again swindle the poor. Such offenses are also sins against the Lord. There will be earthquake, flood, and the sun's eclipse. The feasts will become times of mourning, and no-one will be able to find the word of the Lord.

Psalm 52

The psalmist writes with confidence of God's judgement upon a rich and abusive evildoer.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Colossians 1:15-28

Comment: "A hymn to Christ"

This lesson exults in the primacy of Christ, who is the image of the invisible God in whom all things find meaning and coherence. All the fullness of deity was pleased to dwell in Christ, who provides headship to the living body of the church. In the mystery of God's plan, Gentiles, too, share in the hope of glory. For this ministry to non-Jews Paul has been especially appointed. The sufferings he experiences in his work are a way of filling out the redemptive activity of Christ through his body, the church. The result is that those who once were strangers to God and living in sin may now be reconciled through Christ's sacrifice and grow toward their maturity in his body.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 10:38-42

Comment: "Choosing the better part"

The Gospel is the story of Martha and Mary and their different attitudes toward life and the Lord's presence. Jesus is on his way to Jerusalem and his death. The little narrative focuses on Martha and indicates how good works without a response to the Lord may only lead to anxiety and to missing what is essential.

Mr. Thorill O. Martin ~ 25th

May God bless and strengthen you.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP (Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove, stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
