WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

The Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Hosea 1:2-10

Comment: "Hosea's marriage"

In our opening lection, the prophet Hosea takes a prostitute to be his wife, exemplifying God's enduring love for a transgressing people. Gomer, daughter of Diblaim, bears three children to Hosea and each is given a name symbolic of God's dealings with the northern kingdom of Israel. Yet despite the unfaithfulness of the people, God will gather Israel and Judah once more into one and bless them as children of the living God.

Psalm 85

The psalm both celebrates and prays for the Lord's gracious favour, God's forgiveness, deliverance, and justice.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Colossians 2:6-15

Comment: "Buried with Christ in baptism"

In this lesson, the new disciples at Colossae are urged to remain rooted in Christ, letting nothing detract from his uniqueness and pre-eminence. The Colossians were apparently tempted to worship the pagan star-gods along with Jesus, and also to accept basic Jewish practices such as circumcision as necessary to salvation. But God has revealed the fullness of divinity in Christ, who has triumphed over all such gods. The record of our sin and debt to law have been nailed to the cross. Ours is a far better spiritual circumcision found through dying to our sinful self and being made alive with Christ.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 11:1-13

Comment: "Jesus teaches prayer"

In the Gospel lesson Jesus teaches his disciples about prayer and the character of God as Father. This shorter version of the Lord's Prayer is the earliest know to us. Its concern is both with present life and with readiness for the coming of the reign of God. Jesus' two little stories encourage his followers continually to ask in prayer and to expect the good gifts of God, especially the Holy Spirit.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP
(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
