The Feast of St. Michael and All Angels

First Reading: Genesis 28:10-17

Comment: "Jacob's Dream"

God comes to Jacob in a dream and, in a vision of a ladder between earth and heaven, renews with Jacob the promise made to his grandfather Abraham. Jacob will become the father of a great nation. Jacob awakes astonished at God's self-revelation and sets up a sacred pillar, calling the place "Bethel," a site which will one day become an important northern shrine city.

Psalm 103 "A hymn of praise for God's salvation of Israel"

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Revelations 12:7-12

Comment: "Michael defeats Satan in a cosmic battle"

In a picture of war in heaven between the Dragon, the Ancient Serpent, the Devil, Satan – all names which describe the one evil being – and Michael and all his angels. There is a description of the expulsion of the fallen angels from heaven, or it may be an echo of an old myth of the storming of heaven by the Titans. Whatever the origin, the writer gives a definite Christian interpretation to the ancient legend.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 1:47-51

Comment: "The mediator between heaven and earth"

Our Gospel is the story of Philip and Nathaniel becoming disciples of Jesus. Nathaniel first doubts that the one whom Moses foretold could come from the virtually unknown town of Nazareth. But Jesus astounds Nathaniel by telling him what normal sight could not have disclosed. He then promises Nathaniel that he will have his own still greater vision, a heavenly revelation of the Son of Man as an intermediary between heaven and earth.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP
(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove, stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
