The Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Jeremiah 4:11-12, 22-28

Comment: "Judgement against Jerusalem"
The prophet's oracle is for a devastating judgement. Cities and land alike shall become a ruined desert. The people are utterly rebellious and foolish, and it is because of this that calamity must come. Yet even amid these dire words of warning there is seed of hope: "I will not make a full end," says the Lord, whose mercy may be seen in chastisement.

Psalm 14

A psalm of condemnation for the cynical and disbelieving who trample the poor; yet the Lord will prevail.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Comment: "Christ Jesus came for sinners"
 In this lesson, Paul gives thanks to the Lord Jesus and praise to God for the salvation of sinners, among whom Paul has led the way. The apostle (or a later author writing for him) recalls his acts of persecution and blasphemy against Jesus. But the Lord was merciful to him in his ignorance and unbelief, as he has been to all who have come in faith to him.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 15:1-10

Comment: "Lost sheep and lost coin"
 In the Gospel Jesus tells the two parables of the finding of the lost sheep and the lost coin. The setting helps us to understand that Jesus may have told the story about the lost sheep to defend his acts of reaching out to share the invitation of the reign of God with those often regarded as beyond God's concern. In several ways it would be foolish to leave many sheep to go after one stray, but the parable emphasises the lengths to which both Jesus and God will go to bring back one who is missing. The second story illustrates a related theme of the first: the great joy that is experienced when the lost is found.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
 and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
 There are sweet expressions on each face,
 and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
 stay right here with us,
 filling us with your love.
 And for these blessings,
 we lift our hearts in praise,
 without a doubt we'll know
 that we have been revived
 when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
 You're the one to profit when you say,
 'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
