WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

The Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Jeremiah 18:1-11

Comment: "The Lord shapes Israel"

In our Hebrew scripture lesson, the prophet puts forth an allegory for God's dealings with Jerusalem and Judah: it is like the hands of a potter working with clay. Just as the potter may be working with a ruined piece of clay turning on a wheel, so the potter may transform the clay into a thing of grace and beauty. The Lord is the potter, and the house of Israel the clay. Should the people amend their ways, it is within God's power to bring about a restoration and to shape them once more into a worthy vessel.

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

With marvelous wisdom God alone perceives the heights and depths of life.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): Philemon 1-21

Comment: "Paul says, Receive Onesimus"

This reading contains most of the letter that Paul sent to Philemon asking that he receive back in love the runaway slave Onesimus, who was voluntarily returning to him. Other information indicates that Philemon and Onesimus came from the community of the Colossians. Paul himself is now in prison, perhaps in Rome. Onesimus means "the useful one," and Paul describes him as a man who has now become very useful. Evidently, he had recently been converted to Christ. Paul does not speak against the institution of slavery, but tells Philemon that his relationship with Onesimus is changed now that they are brothers in Christ.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 14:25-33

Comment: "Give up your possessions"

In our Gospel, Jesus speaks of the necessity of counting the full cost of discipleship. To follow Jesus in the way of the cross means to surrender the whole of one's life. Any relationship which interferes with this primary commitment must be hated. Jesus tells the crowds two stories to make them consider carefully whether they are ready and able to follow him completely.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
