WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

Comment: "Jeremiah laments over Judah"
 In our first lesson the prophet laments both the heavy word that it is his duty to carry to the people, and the stubborn resistance of the people to repentance. The prophet's heart is, like the Lord's own heart, sick with grief and trouble, as one found constantly weeping.

Psalm 79:1-9
 A psalm of lament in a day of destruction, with petition for the Lord's help and deliverance.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 1 Timothy 2:1-7

Comment: "One God, one mediator"
 In this lesson disciples are called upon to pray for all, including political rulers, so that Christians may lead peaceable and moral lives. It is God's will that everyone should find salvation. Jesus is the mediator between the one God and humanity; he has sacrificed himself for the freedom of all. Paul has been appointed an apostle to make his saving work known to the Gentiles. During this period the newborn Christian movement was a tiny part of society and Christians felt that they needed peaceful conditions to spread the gospel. They usually took a positive view of the functions of the state in maintaining peace and justice.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 16:1-13

Comment: "Serving God or wealth"
 Our Gospel is the story of the steward who, when dismissed for mismanagement, showed himself to be very shrewd. This is followed by teaching about Mammon, that is, worldly wealth. The joke would be on us if we fastened on the details of the story. The man's obviously dishonest behaviour forces us to look more deeply for what is admirable about him-his readiness to face up to reality together with his unquenchable hopefulness in the face of calamity. This is to be the attitude of Jesus' followers as the kingdom with its time challenge and judgement approaches. The teaching on money suggests that disciples must know its significance, while never serving it.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
 and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
 There are sweet expressions on each face,
 and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
 stay right here with us,
 filling us with your love.
 And for these blessings,
 we lift our hearts in praise,
 without a doubt we'll know
 that we have been revived
 when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness and believe.
 You're the one to profit when you say,
 'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'
