The Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

September 1, 2019

Service: 7:00 A.M & 9.00 A.M.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

The writer of Psalm 133 is certainly on target when he declares how very good and pleasant it is when brothers and sisters live together in unity.

United by the Holy Spirit in our love, fellowship and work, we can show forth the Power of our God in the community.

In that Spirit of family solidarity, and on behalf of our Dean who is on a short break, we welcome back to fellowship and worship our Organist and Choir as well as all members of the congregation who have been away on summer break.

Currently, as parents and students fine-tune their preparations for the New School Year, we ask God's generous provision of all things needed by them.

Congratulations to those among us moving on to new Schools, Colleges and University. May God create in you wisdom, knowledge and understanding, and equip you with a disciplined mind for the work.

For all of us in this Cathedral Parish, the celebration of our Patronal Festival, Wednesday, September 25th to Wednesday, October 2nd, 2019, our full participation in this celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 8:00 A.M. On Sunday, September 29th, 2019 - the feast day of St. Michael and All Angels - followed by a Fellowship Breakfast in the courtyard of the Central Bank and our attendance at the Grand Festival Concert at 6.00 P.M. on that same day are events which demand, and can build our sense of unity, in love, fellowship and service.

Please put these matters in prayer to the Lord during this month.

*Yours sincerely
Canon Knight*

WELCOME AND MAY THE LORD BLESS US ALL

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,
and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain:

*Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet Heavenly Dove,
stay right here with us,
filling us with your love.
And for these blessings,
we lift our hearts in praise,
without a doubt we'll know
that we have been revived
when we shall leave this place.*

There are blessings you cannot receive till you know him in his fullness, and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
'I am going to walk with Jesus all the way.'

The Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Jeremiah 2:4-13

Comment: “Israel forsakes the Lord”

In our Hebrew scripture lesson, the prophet gives voice to the Lord’s bafflement with the families of Israel, who have strayed far and no longer seek God. The people seem to have forgotten their deliverance from Egypt and God’s providential care in giving them the promised land. All have forgotten the Lord: priests, rulers, prophets, and people alike, pursuing gods which are no gods, and worthless ways. The very heavens are appalled that the people have turned from God, the fountain of living water.

Psalm 81:1, 10-16

A song of festival praise and an exhortation to worship the Lord alone.

Second Lesson: (The Epistle) Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Comment: “God is with us”

In this reading Christians are urged to live moral, hospitable, and charitable lives, recalling the faith and examples of their leaders, but especially the unchanging Jesus. The leaders referred to are the founders of this church who have now died. Jesus Christ, however, remains with his people, in the past, present, and future. Scripture says that God will never forsake us, and, with the Lord as our helper, there is no need to be afraid. Therefore, one should be swift to worship, both in the praise of one’s lips and by sharing and striving to do good to others.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Comment: “Invite the poor to your banquet”

In the Gospel Jesus tells a parable about humility and teaches his host that he should invite the poor and infirm to his feasts. Both the parable and the teaching have a still deeper significance. The reign of God is the Lord's gift, which comes to those who do not presume their place in it. By his actions as well as his words Jesus's ministry shows that the kingdom is open to those who are considered by others to be outcasts. People who share in God's ruling love and justice are to have a transformed attitude toward the poor and needy.
