Organ Postlude*WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!*The Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

Comment: "Israel plants gardens in Babylon"

In our Hebrew Bible reading the prophet Jeremiah offers a surprising counsel from Jerusalem to the elders, priests, and prophets now in exile in Babylon. They are to pay no heed to those who predict a speedy end to their captivity and should instead get on with the business of life as best they are able in their new circumstance. The people are to build houses, have families, and seek for the welfare of Babylon. In due course the Lord will bring them back to Jerusalem, and they are to pray for Jerusalem's well being in the meanwhile; the time of return is not yet.

Psalm 66:1-11

A hymn of praise and thanksgiving to God who rules in majesty and delivers God's people.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 2 Timothy 2:8-15

Comment: "We will live with Christ"

In this reading Paul bids Timothy to be a faithful worker, reminding himself and others of Jesus' resurrection and the new life that is to be known with him. Although Paul is shut up in prison, the gospel is free in the world. The apostle reflects on his own sufferings and encourages his younger associate in his role of leadership. Especially should he warn his people to avoid disputes over words. The verses which begin, "If we have died with him, we will also live with him," seem part of an early Christian hymn.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 17:11-19

Comment: "One leper gives thanks to God"

In the Gospel story, Jesus' command brings about the cleansing of ten lepers, but only one, a Samaritan, returns to give thanks. Jesus is on the way to his destiny in Jerusalem. The narrative illustrates the power of the reign of God to give a new lease on life. The lepers, who were formerly outcasts, would not be allowed to return home. But only a despised Samaritan recognises that a life of gratitude and faith is now possible. Physical healing is but a first step. He becomes whole and finds salvation.
