WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Joel 2:23-32

Comment: "The promise to restore Israel"
In our opening reading the prophet pictures a time of great abundance and gladness. All plague and famine are in the past. The Lord will be present to the people of God, and they will never again be put to shame. God will pour forth the Spirit on all peoples, creating prophecies, dreams, and visions. There will be signs in the natural world as well, on earth and in the sky, for this will be a time of great transformation—a day of judgment as well as opportunity for salvation.

Psalm 65
A psalm of praise and thanksgiving to the saviour, the mighty Lord, who creates the earth and causes it to bring forth abundantly.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18
Comment: "The good fight of faith"
In this epistle passage Paul, believing that his death is near, closes his letter to Timothy and looks forward with great faith to the heavenly kingdom. Paul is in prison in Rome, having already been put on trial once and barely escaping the lion's jaws. Although he may only be speaking figuratively, some form of martyrdom appears close at hand. Even his friends have deserted him. Still, he proclaims the gospel and is ready to be sacrificed, trusting that the Lord will soon appear. His perseverance becomes a pillar for the continuing faith of the church.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 18:9-14
Comment: "A Pharisee and tax collector pray"
Our Gospel lesson is the story of the Pharisee who trusts in his righteousness and the sinful tax collector. The parable illustrates repeated themes of the gospels: God's ways frequently reverse human expectations. It is God's acceptance and not human merit which opens the gift of the kingdom.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP
(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

Refrain

*Bind us together, Lord,
bind us together
with cords that cannot be broken;
bind us together, Lord,
bind us together,
O bind us together in love*

There is only one God,
there is only one King,
there is only one body -
that is why we sing:

Refrain

Made for the glory of God, purchased by his precious Son.
Born with the right to be clean,
for Jesus the victory has won.

Refrain

You are the family of God,
you are the promise divine,
you are God's chosen desire,
you are the glorious new wine.
