The Last Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Comment: "Coming of the Shepherd"

In our opening lesson the Lord denounces the rulers who have so poorly shepherded the people Israel. God will gather the flock together and give them new shepherds, especially a just ruler in the line of David. Jeremiah prophesied during the year that Babylon was conquering his country, and while Judah's last king Zedekiah (part of whose name meant righteousness) was ruling in Jerusalem. God would now have to act as shepherd to this people and will finally fulfil Israel's dream by raising up a wise and truly righteous ruler.

Canticle 16 Page 40

A song of thanksgiving and prophecy. The child will be called the prophet of the Most High and will make a way for the Lord.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 1 Colossians 1: 11-20

Comment: "A hymn to Christ, firstborn of all creation"

In this reading Paul prays that the Colossians may be strengthened to meet whatever is to come, and he praises the Son as the visible likeness of the invisible God, through whom all things were created. He is the head of his body, the church, and the source of its life. There were some new disciples at Colossae who wished to worship Jesus as one of several lords. Paul insists that there can be no other divinities. God's full nature is in him. He is before all things and is the unifying principle for all created life. Through him we have been brought out of darkness into his kingdom, and by his sacrifice alone God reconciles all things.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 23: 33 - 43

Comment: "Jesus crucified with two thieves"

In the gospel Jesus, as he hangs upon the cross, is mocked as the Christ and the King of the Jews. To a thief crucified with him he promises paradise. The story forces us also to ask, "what kind of ruler is this? What royal power does he have? What sort of God would allow God's chosen one to die like this?" Clearly the strength of God revealed in Christ is very different from the human understanding of kingship. Jesus' word to the thief are words of hope to all who die in every manner of circumstance.

HYMN OF FELLOWSHIP
(Worshippers join hands for the singing of the last refrain)

Refrain

*Bind us together, Lord,
bind us together
with cords that cannot be broken;
bind us together, Lord,
bind us together,
O bind us together in love*

There is only one God,
there is only one King,
there is only one body -
that is why we sing:

Refrain

Made for the glory of God, purchased by his precious Son.
Born with the right to be clean,
for Jesus the victory has won.

Refrain

You are the family of God,
you are the promise divine,
you are God's chosen desire,
you are the glorious new wine.
