The Third Sunday after The Epiphany

First Reading: Isaiah 9:1-4
 Comment: "Light shines for those in darkness"

Our Hebrew Bible lesson is a hymn of thanksgiving and hope offered at the birth of a new king in Jerusalem. The prophet hails the one born to be the ruler of his people. His reign will end oppression and bring justice, righteousness, and a lasting peace. Christians see these words coming to fulfilment in Jesus.

Psalms 27:1, 5-13

The psalmist expresses great trust and confidence in the Lord and asks always to be in God's presence.

SECOND READING (The Epistle): 1 Corinthians 1:10-18
 Comment "An appeal for unity in the Gospel"

In this lesson we hear that Paul is disturbed by news of factions in the young Corinthian church. Apparently, the new converts were dividing into groups based on who it was who baptised them and whose teaching they were following. They must instead be unified in Jesus, in whose name alone they are baptised. Paul is grateful on this account that he himself has baptised very few of them, and that he does not preach with such eloquent wisdom that people would rely on him rather than the cross of Christ.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 4:12-23
 Comment: "Christ revealed as a prophet"

The Gospel is a summary of the early ministry of Jesus: his preaching, the calling of disciples, and his acts of healing. After the arrest of John the Baptist, Jesus withdrew to Galilee, an area in which many Gentiles lived. The evangelist perceives in this a fulfilment of prophecy and a foreshadowing of the church's mission to bring the light of the gospel to darkened lives. Two sets of brothers are called to leave their nets and become fishers of people.

CATHEDRAL NEWS

1. Confirmation Classes: Please note that registration for Confirmation Classes has started. It is anticipated that Confirmation will be celebrated in November, as part of the Diocese's "Mission 2020: God's Gathering" initiative. Interested persons can collect forms from the table at the west door of the Cathedral. Completed forms should be returned to the Office, as soon as possible.

2. Initial Offering: Today, members are asked to present their Initial Offering, the first envelope in the Stewardship package. It will serve as 'the First Fruits of our Labours for the year' and will also serve to defray the cost of the set of envelopes which has been issued. Sincere thanks to everyone, in anticipation of the generous contributions, and may God bless the labours of our hands.

3. Lectors and Intercessors' Meeting: There will be a meeting for all Lectors and Intercessors on Tuesday, January 28th, 2020 at 5:30 P.M. Plans for the formation of a Guild of St. Gabriel's will be consolidated at that meeting.

4. Organ Restoration: There will be a meeting for all Covenanters in the Organ Restoration Project on Saturday, February 1, 2020 at 4:00 P.M. in the Cathedral House. All persons who have signed up to raise funds, in this manner, are asked to make a special effort to attend. Canon Knight, Chairman of the project will give an update and consider other plans, in pursuit of the goal.

Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me
 Let there be peace on earth

 With God our Creator
 Children all are we
 Let us walk with each other
 In perfect harmony

Let peace begin with me
 Let this be the moment now
 With every step I take
 Let this be my solemn vow
 To take each moment
 And live each moment
 In peace and eternally

Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me.
