WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

The Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9-18
Comment: "Elijah on Mount Horeb"
The reading from the Hebrew Bible tells how God is made known to Elijah—not in wind, earthquake, or fire—but in a still small voice. In a mood of depression the prophet retreats to Mount Horeb. But the Lord gives him a new mission and a promise that there will be a remnant in Israel who will not worship the false god Baal. Although God is known in a word of revelation rather than in the awesome events of nature, these happenings can also be seen as harbingers of God's presence.

Psalm 85:8-13
The Psalmist both celebrates and prays for the Lord's gracious favour, forgiveness, deliverance, and justice.

Second Reading (The Epistle): Romans 10:5-15
Comment "The word of faith"

In this lesson, Paul teaches that the word of faith is a gift; by it we make our saving confession that Jesus is Lord and that God raised him from the dead. Without God's grace the way of righteousness would be impossibly distant. But the faith that leads to righteousness is in our hearts and confession of salvation is on our lips. This is true for all people, no matter what their background, and so it is essential that the Good News be carried far and wide, that all may call upon the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 14:22-33
Comment: "Jesus walking on the sea"

The Gospel is the story of Jesus' walking on the water and his rescue of Peter after his faith fails him. The narrative has several levels of meaning. In legendary terms, Jesus is like the Creator God who strides over the watery chaos monster. Matthew's gospel stresses this revelation of Jesus' close relationship with God, as God's Son, and the importance of faith on the part of the disciples. A church beset by its own problems and lack of faith would be glad to perceive in this story the saving presence of its risen Lord.
