The Last Sunday After Pentecost

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24
Comment: "God will shepherd Israel"
 In our opening reading, the Lord promises to be the shepherd of the people. God will bring them home and heal them. God will feed and protect them. The exile of Israel is coming to an end. Ezekiel has prophesied against the false shepherd, the rulers who only fed off the flock. Now God will tend the sheep who have been dispersed and preyed upon, but the overfed will be judged.

Psalm 95:1-7a
A call to worship the Lord our God.

Second Reading (The Epistle): Ephesians 1:15-23
Comment: "The reign of Christ"
 In this lesson, Paul gives thanks for the faith and love of the Ephesians and prays that they may see with their inward eyes the power of God, who has raised and enthroned Jesus far above all earthly and heavenly dominions. How vast is the treasure that God offers to those who trust in the Lord! The Lord Christ now reigns as head of the church, which is his body, and which experiences the fullness of his love.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 25:31-46
Comment: "The separation of sheep and goats"
 Our Gospel presents a picture of the universal judgement when the Son of Man, acting as judge and king, will separate humankind into two groups: those who have cared for the Lord in the needy, the stranger, and prisoners—and those who have not. On one level the evangelist intends those in need to be understood as Christian disciples. But the bringing of all peoples into judgment has caused Christians to realise that the Christ is to be recognised in every individual. Beneath this awareness lies a profound theological mystery: the likeness of God, which has been decisively revealed in the human person of Jesus, may be perceived in each human being.

CATHEDRAL NEWS

Household Worship: Members are encouraged to pray the office of Morning Prayer daily. The Daily Office can also serve as a personal or family discipline. Gift Sunday: The Cathedral has been unable to host the annual fundraising events this year, due to the COVID-19 restrictions. Consequently, there has been a shortfall in the anticipated revenue, and at this juncture, some financial obligations remain outstanding. The Fund-Raising Committee has arranged for members to contribute, according to their means, a gift of Bds $50.00 or multiples of $50.00 towards this cause, today, Sunday, November 22, 2020. Thank you for your generosity and may God bless you as we continue His Work.
