WELCOME AND MAY GOD BLESS US ALL!

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:1-10

Comment: "The calling of Samuel"

In our opening lesson we hear how Samuel learns that it is the Lord who is calling to him. Three times the boy Samuel misunderstands and thinks that it is his mentor, Eli, summoning him during the night. Finally, Eli realises it must be the Lord, and tells Samuel to be ready for the prophetic word that will be spoken to him.

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

With marvellous wisdom, God alone perceives the heights and depths of life.

Second Reading (The Epistle): 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Comment: "Glorify God in your body"

In this lesson Paul is required to criticise a misguided understanding of Christian freedom that has been adopted by some of the Corinthians. "All things are permitted me," is what some are saying, and evidently then interpreting their freedom in Christ to mean that they are so "spiritual" they can join with a prostitute without doing any harm. But our bodies, Paul contends, like all the rest of us, have now been dedicated to Christ. They are temples of the Holy Spirit through which we may glorify God.

The Holy Gospel: John 1:43-51

Comment: "The calling of the first disciples"

Our gospel is the story of Philip and Nathaniel becoming disciples of Jesus. Nathaniel first doubts that the one whom Moses foretold could come from the virtually unknown town of Nazareth. But Jesus astounds Nathaniel by telling him what normal sight could not have disclosed. He then promises Nathaniel that he will have his own still greater vision, a heavenly revelation of the Son of Man as an intermediary between heaven and earth.
