The Third Sunday after the Epiphany

First Reading: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Comment: "Repentance at Nineveh"

In our Hebrew scripture lesson, the prophet Jonah, following his ordeal in the belly of a great fish, receives a second summons to prophesy to the heathen city of Nineveh. Jonah preaches as he passed into the city, proclaiming repentance, and predicting forty days before the city's overthrow. The people of Nineveh believe God and respond to the prophet's message, proclaiming a fast and putting on the sackcloth and ashes that signify mourning and repentance. In response to Nineveh's turn of heart, God determines not to destroy the city.

Psalms 62:6-14

God is a rock and shelter. The people are to trust in God alone.

Second Reading (The Epistle): 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Comment: "Living in the end times"

In our epistle lesson, Paul encourages the Corinthians to manage their temporal affairs in light of external realities. It was thought by Paul and the early Christian communities that the time of the Lord's return was near. The urgency was all the greater, therefore, to keep priorities in order and to be cautious about attachments to this present world which may distract. The time to labour for God's kingdom is now.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Comment: "The calling of the disciples at the sea"

Our gospel records the beginning of Jesus' ministry: his proclamation of the coming kingdom and the calling of his first disciples. After the arrest of John the Baptist, Jesus returns to Galilee preaching the nearness of God's rule and the need for a change of heart. Two sets of brothers are bidden to leave their nets and become fishers for people.
