Sunday November 17, 2024 The Twenty-Sixth Sunday after Pentecost: Year B

First Reading: 1 Samuel 1:4-20
Comment: "The birth of Samuel"
In this Hebrew Bible reading we hear the story of the birth of the prophet Samuel, on whom the guidance and direction of Israel waits. In distress because of her barrenness, Hannah makes fervent intercession before the Lord, pleading for a male child and promising that should her hope be granted, the child will be set aside for the Lord's service. The priest Eli at first thinks Hannah is drunk, but when he perceives her faithfulness, prophesies that the Lord will fulfil her petition. Against all expectation Hannah becomes pregnant and delivers Samuel, who will become a Nazarite, a prophet and a great judge over Israel.

Psalm: 16
Contentment, refuge, and joy are found in the presence of the Lord. To the faithful one, God will show the path of life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25
Comment: "The way to God opened through Christ's death"
In this New Testament lesson, we learn that Christ's sacrifice, supplanting those of the early offerings of the people, is the effective provision for all time and all people, and he has become a new and living way offering access to God, who may now be freely approached. The Holy Spirit confirms within all disciples that what was promised by the prophets has now been fulfilled; God's eternal law is now inscribed on human hearts and minds. Believers who have been washed in baptism must continue in the faithful way, encouraging each other to love, good deeds and frequent assembly.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 13:1-8
Comment: "The end: the coming of the Son"
In our gospel lesson, Jesus predicts the destruction of the temple and tells of what is to come. One of the disciples expresses awe at the grandeur of the temple built by Herod. Then, while viewing the temple complex from the Mount of Olives, four of the disciples privately inquire as to when Jesus' prophecy might come to pass. Jesus responds that wars and imposters, political upheaval and natural disasters will come, but they are but birth pangs of the end.
